FUTURE PLANS OF JAGUAR

The December 2002 issue of CAR (published in the U.K.) and the January 2003 issue of Automobile Magazine both included some interesting information about the future plans at Jaguar Cars. Both articles essentially made the same points with one exception noted below. Some of the more interesting points are as follows:

1. The F-type roadster is again in Jaguar's future plans for 2007 according to CAR. Automobile magazine doesn't refer to the F-type but does make references to an X-type roadster. It appears that both magazines are talking about the same car but using different names. CAR does make the point that plans for the F-type as a "radical" roadster have been canned. I assume they were referring to the plans to produce the F-type as a mid-engined car similar to the Porsche Boxster.
2. Jaguar will abandon platform sharing with Ford and other brands within the Ford stable. Instead, they will try to use a base platform for both the X-type and the S-type. The X-type would become a strictly rear wheel drive car.
3. All body structures would be designed to accommodate a wide range of engines, including V-6s, V-8s, and V-10s.
4. Jaguar intends to have three "halo" cars – an X-type coupe, an S-type coupe, and the F-type roadster or X-type roadster.
5. Future design direction will include oval type grilles for sports cars (as per the E-type and XK8), the four lamp front ends for sedans (like the current XJ and X-type), and the coupes will feature a "shield" grille framed by unequal sized round headlamps (such as that found on the 2001 R-Coupe concept car).

The articles also suggested that a new S-type coupe could be produced as early as 2005. It will be interesting to see how much of this actually happens. It certainly sounds encouraging for the future of Jaguar.

PRESIDENT'S COLUMN

It is good to see the start of a new driving season. I had the convertible top down several times over the past couple of weeks. I believe I even saw our friendly newsletter editor out and about with his back window unzipped. When cars comprise as important a part of your life as they do for us, you are always waiting for a chance to drive them. Don't get me wrong; everyone that knows me is aware of the fact that I will drive an old Jag around in any kind of weather, but it is so much nicer to go out and just cruise when the weather is nice.

We will be having several great driving events again this year. In fact, our March event will be a tour over the mountains to Dahlonega. I won't tell you our exact route here but it is very scenic and is probably a route that most of you have not ever taken. Our own Chris Padgett has done a great job of planning for this event. I hope that we will be seeing you at most of our events. I know you will enjoy them. I would also like to encourage you to do as Chris has done and plan an event. It does not take that much time to do it and it is very rewarding to know that you have helped others in the pursuit of their automotive enjoyment. It also provides diverse activities for all of us. If the same people plan all the events then we could end up doing the same old things over and over. When different people plan each event we get a chance to try out something new.

Happy Motoring
Terry

MEMBERSHIP AND FINANCE STATUS REPORT

The Club begins 2003 with 37 of the 47 members at the end of 2002. We added eight members at the end of 2002 whose memberships were to become effective at the beginning of 2003. Thus, our total membership as of January 1, 2003 is 45. As in the past, we have prospects to whom we have provided information. This is a very good position for a club that is only beginning its second year.

The Club treasury has approximately $1,200 on hand and should increase by another $300 when all advertising revenue is collected.

As we strengthen our finances, we should be able to take some risks on some types of events that might require an up front expenditure.

A detailed financial report for 2002 has been provided to the Board of Directors and any member who would like to obtain a copy should call or e-mail Roy Cleveland.

KIRKMAN WINNER OF REGIONAL JCNA AWARD

Congratulations to Dave Kirkman for having the highest scoring (99.84) E-Type in JCNA concours competition for Class 06 (Series 2) in the Southeastern U.S. for 2002. We look forward to seeing Dave's beautiful Willow Green E-Type at some of our events this year.

CUNNINGHAM APPOINTED JCNA REGIONAL DIRECTOR

Lynn Cunningham, an NGJC member, was recently appointed as a regional director of JCNA from the Southeast. Prior to moving to Atlanta, Lynn was instrumental in founding the JCNA affiliated club in Nashville, Tennessee. We are fortunate to have a member from our club in this important position within the national club. The appointment reflects JCNA President Gary Hagopian's confidence in Lynn. It may somewhat reflect JCNA's expectations for our club.

If you have suggestions regarding JCNA, please communicate them to Lynn. His home number is 770-512-8707.
